

Call for Nominations!

Adding Life to Years

Robert P. Bynum Award

Robert P. Bynum

This award will be given annually by the UAB Center for Aging to honor and to recognize older adults, age 75 or older at the time of the award, who remain actively engaged in activities that enhance the health or well-being of other older adults. It is expected that future awardees will have a track record of leadership and service on behalf of older adults that is illustrated by the life and work of Robert P. Bynum, for whom the award is named.

Robert P. Bynum has spent his entire career working to improve the health and well-being of older adults. Before retirement, Mr. Bynum worked for the Social Security Administration for 32 years. He has worked with the UAB Center for Aging as an employee, consultant, and as a volunteer. Mr. Bynum provided leadership for UAB Elderhostel programs for many years, and he continues to conduct pre-retirement seminars for the City of Birmingham and several large corporations. He serves on the Center for Aging Community Advisory Committee

Nominations can be sent to the Director, UAB Center for Aging, CH19 201, 1530 3rd Avenue South, Birmingham, AL 35294-2041 or by email to cfa@aging.uab.edu. When making a nomination, provide the name, birth date, mailing address, phone number, and email for the potential awardee, along with no more than a one-page, single-spaced description of the nominee's past, current, and ongoing activities that would merit selection for the award.

Previous winners of this award are:

2005	Robert P. Bynum
2006	Colonel Stone Johnson
2007	Hyman M. "Herc" Levine, Jr.

Please submit nominations by June 9, 2008.